LINGER broke in front but LOOKOUT quickly went to the front and had a two length lead rounding the first turn. PLUTUS was LOOKOUT's nearest rival after a half mile. MIRAGE, a mild threat earlier, began to fall back after a mile and LINGER collapsed approaching the five-eighths pole. BUCK McCANN swung to the rail for the stretch run in an effort to catch PLUTUS but had little left. Meanwhile LOOKOUT had things much as he pleased, winning by four lengths. PLUTUS was two in front of BOUNDLESS which was four to the good of BUCK McCANN.
